Clearbrook to Discuss the Opportunities in Alternative Assets at Agecroft Partners Hedge Fund Investor Leadership Summit

Agecroft Partners will be donating 100% of profits from Summit to charity

NEW YORK, N.Y., December 05, 2016 – In an effort to provide unbiased insights about hedge funds and strategies that can enhance risk-adjusted returns for portfolios, Clearbrook Global Advisors' Chief Investment Officer Tim Ng will be participating on a panel at Agecroft Partners' Hedge Fund Investor Leadership Summit in New York. All profits from the conference will be donated to Hedge Funds Care, also known as Help For Children (HFC), an international charity, supported largely by the hedge fund industry, whose sole mission is preventing and treating child abuse.

The event will take place on December 7 at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York City and will bring together over 600 hedge fund investment professionals, including 300 of the world's most influential investors in hedge funds. Mr. Ng will join a panel of investment professionals focusing on opportunities in quant, event-driven, and fixed income strategies.

“Since Clearbrook was founded over 11 years ago, we have seen the alternative assets space evolve into a complex and crowded industry,” said Clearbrook’s CEO Elliott Wislar. “Manager selection has been the backbone of our success at Clearbrook for both our OCIO and advisory businesses, as we have built out our senior team with individuals who have investment management experience. This gives us an edge when selecting the right managers for the right time in the market cycle.”

Agecroft Partners created “Gaining the Edge Hedge Fund Leadership Summits” to share industry expertise and to facilitate discussions amongst hedge fund professionals. Attendees have the opportunity to hear industry experts share unique insights about the current state of the hedge fund industry and to network with other hedge fund professionals.
