Clearbrook Rings NYSE Closing Bell® to Highlight Launch of ClearShares LLC OCIO ETF (Ticker: NYSE OCIO)

First actively managed OCIO ETF launched in June offers diverse portfolio of active and passive index-based ETFs

New York, NY. — August 30, 2017 — Elliott Wislar, CEO and Thomas Deegan, Chief Operating Officer of Clearbrook, will be ringing the NYSE Closing Bell® today to mark the launch of ClearShares OCIO ETF (NYSE:OCIO). ClearShares LLC, a Clearbrook Company, began trading ClearShares OCIO ETF (the “Fund”) on June 27, 2017. An early adopter of the Outsourced Chief Investment Officer (OCIO) model in ETF form, the Fund is an ETF of ETFs, offering access to an actively managed, diverse portfolio of passive and active index-based ETFs. It is distributed by Quasar Distributors, LLC.

“We are excited to have launched ClearShares OCIO ETF in response to the needs of our investors for an innovative solution that incorporates experienced investment management with the cost advantages, liquidity and transparency of an ETF structure,” said Mr. Wislar. “Due to the positive feedback we have received on the Fund, we are looking to launch similar ETF products over the next year or two that offer investor’s access to top investment talent and a broad range of traditional and alternative asset classes.”
